Andrea Silbert founded the Center for Women & Enterprise, Inc. in 1995. CWE, SBA's official women's business center in Massachusetts, is a non-profit whose mission is to empower women to become economically self-sufficient and prosperous through entrepreneurship. With offices in Boston, Worcester and Providence, CWE provides education, training, technical assistance, and access to capital to ensure that all women, regardless of their economic status, have the opportunity to start and run their own businesses. Since its inception, CWE has served over 6,500 women in Massachusetts and Rhode Island and fostered the creation of 3,290 net new jobs, which in turn have generated approximately $114 million in wages. As a non-profit charitable organization, CWE provides its service on a sliding scale basis in order to serve all women.

"Andrea Silbert Lane exemplifies the talent, business savvy, vision, and commitment required to be a recognized leader in the Massachusetts business arena," said Acting SBA Director Hayward. "She has created one of the best SBA women's business centers in the country because of her determination to see women business owners succeed."

Silbert will be honored at an awards breakfast on June 10, 2004 at 8:00 a.m. The Massachusetts Small Business Person of the Year, Larry O'Toole, president of Somerville-based Gentle Giant Moving Company, Inc., will also be honored along with eight other small businesses and champions from throughout the state. The event is open to the public and those interested in attending should contact Christine Carter at SBA at 617-565-5560.
